Newly renovated, this East 36th Street co-op in a doorman building follows one of the more impressive alcove studio layouts — with an entry foyer, a separate kitchen and decent closet space, it really is just one wall and a door away from a real one-bedroom. And it comes with this Murray Hill advantage: views of the Chrysler Building. Agent: Jim Mazzeo, Weichert Realtors Mazzeo Agency, (212) 995-0006.
