Daily Dream Home: $10.75 Million Penthouse with Hudson River Views

By McLean Robbins in House

If you're dreaming of a new Big Apple pad, take a look at this new five-bedroom listing from Rutenberg Realty.

Thee gorgeous 3,200-square-foot home has nearly panoramic windows with river views all the way to the George Washington Bridge. The fabulously open-concept entertaining space includes a ventless fireplace and 70 bottle capacity dual Gaggenau wine storage, as well as chic Barrel Brown Stone Grey wood.

While we know that kitchens in New York can sometimes be an afterthought, this pad offers an eat-in area with seating for six, along with a large island. The Miele appliances include a 48" refrigerator/freezer and 5-gas burner stove. The custom kitchen has a sleek, modern look – so nobody will know if you store your sweaters in the oven. la Carrie Bradshaw.

The dual master layout offers owners a choice of their preferred views – river or street. Bathrooms have gorgeous marble accents and oversized tub.

Added amenities include a huge utility room, custom closets throughout, remote controlled Hunter Douglas black out and solar shades and prewired Crestron system to be customized.

Should you ever need to leave, the doorman building also includes a privately attended in-building garage, health club with pool, garden oasis with reflecting pool, billiards room, valet and private function room.

It's only $10.75 million. We'll take two, thanks.
