“CENTURY 21 NY METRO” NAMED PRINCIPAL BROKER OF CARTUS BROKER NETWORK

(New York, New York, September 14, 2006) CENTURY 21 NY Metro has been named a principal member of the Cartus Broker Network. CENTURY 21 NY Metro has 140 agents in two offices throughout the Greater New York metropolitan area. Network brokers are responsible for, among other things, the effective marketing of real estate on behalf of Cartus’ clients, and the delivery of Top Block1 service to its customers.

According to Deborah Williams, senior vice president of Cartus Broker Services, Century 21 NY Metro will take on an important role in providing real estate services to Cartus clients. The decision to make the firm a Network Broker in the market was based on their strong performance and a shared commitment to Cartus business and its customer goals.

Michael Simon, president of CENTURY 21 NY Metro, said the relationship with Cartus brings with it increased responsibility and additional opportunities to the firm. “This move makes a tremendous statement about our company. Cartus is an industry leader in relocation. The fact that we were chosen as a Principal Broker speaks highly to our reputation as a real estate firm in this competitive market.”

Williams stressed the critical role that the Cartus Network Brokers play in the company’s ability to support clients and their transferring employees. “The real estate brokers that make up our Network must provide the very best in service delivery, meeting, and maintaining stringent performance standards. CENTURY 21 NY Metro meets those standards.

We are proud to be associated with them and look forward to a long and effective relationship,” Williams said.
