productions in a two day exhibit launching the evening of December 3, 2010 at Art Basel Miami Beach. The exhibition will take place in the heart of South Beach at Boulan South Beach, a luxury condominium opening in January 2011.

Anne Huntington, Founder of AMH Industries, has been invited to curate the contemporary exhibition. Gary Krimershmoy, Managing Director of Quintessentially Art LLC, will be a contributor to the exhibition's content. Video art will be curated by Indira Cesarine, Creative Director of XXXX Magazine, in collaboration with film-maker/curator Konstantinos Menelak

The opening event will take place December 3 with a VIP Reception from 5 to 7pm followed by the exhibition launch party from 7 to 10pm. The exhibition will be open to the general public on Saturday, December 4 from 2 to 9pm. The Young Contemporaries of the Miami Art Museum will be presenting a showcase of performance art on December 4. A percentage of proceeds from works of art sold will aid AFL's efforts in supporting contemporary art at the Musée du Louvre. Valet parking is available at Boulan South Beach.

Support and Sponsors Support for this event has been provided for by Boulan South Beach, Worldwide, Quintessentially, Quintessentially Art, XXXX Magazine, AMH Industries, the Miami Museum Contemporaries, Young Patrons Circle of American Friends of the Louvre and Rice Catering.

The Young Patrons Circle of American Friends of the Louvre (www.aflouvre.org) and the Young Contemporaries of the Miami Art Museum will be co-hosting the launch of XXXX Magazine's forthcoming issue "Voyeur" at Art Basel Miami Beach. The latest video art films from XXXX Magazine will premier at the event in a video art installation. In celebration of the new issue, AFL and XXXX Magazine have commissioned Anne Huntington to conceive of an exhibition of contemporary art around the concept of "voyeur" which will be on view at the launch. Quintessentially Art's Gary Krimershmoy, who has run UBS's VIP client's educational tours at Art Basel Miami Beach for the past two years, will be serving as an curatorial advisor to the exhibition.

The American Friends of the Louvre (AFL) was founded by the Musée du Louvre in 2002 to strengthen ties between the Louvre and its American public, and to formalize the long-standing generosity of American patrons. Since 1793, the Louvre has welcomed new and emerging artists into its halls to follow in the footsteps of their great predecessors. In 2003, the Louvre initiated a new dialogue between the art of today and its permanent collection by inviting artists to propose or create works inspired by the museum and its collections. This policy has established a connection and new resonance between the art of the past and contemporary creation. Recent commissions include works by Mike Kelley, Candida Höfer, Joseph Kosuth, Richard Serra, Luc Bourgeois and Willem de Kooning.

XXXX MAGAZINE, (xxxxmagazine.com or 4x-magazine.com), launched in 2009, is a multimedia publication showcasing established and emerging talent in contemporary art, film, photography, fashion and music. Each issue is brought together through the collaboration of over 100 contributors, presenting 20 - 30 original multimedia productions revolving around a specific Anne Huntington is the founder of AMH Industries, LLC - a full service art advisory and curating company. She independently produces exhibitions including '4 Sale' a collaboration between Aneta Bartos, Elle Muliarchyk, Yana Toyber, and Martynka Wawrzyniak, which was featured in the November 2010 Art Issue of W Magazine; 'An Endless Summer', which debuted new works by Australian artist, Anna Coroneo; 'Pretty Young Things,' a salon-style show of 23 emerging artists which successfully attracted over 500 collectors, critics, curators and art lovers. She works with artists on solo and group projects. She connected four artists to the Bicycle Film Festival's installation at the Damon Dash Gallery and has worked closely with Tools for Thought on events such as the Haiti benefit at Sotheby's and for HomeBase where she curated a group show in her private residence. She worked on the highly lauded 2005 Robert Smithson retrospective at Whitney Museum and at David Zwirner. She is the New York Communications Manager at P&P & Company.

Gary Krimerishmoys is the Managing Director of Quintessentially Art LLC (quintessentiallyart.com) a global art advisory firm, with offices in NY and London. Within the company, Gary works with a global clientele, which includes private international collectors, as well as corporations like Google. This year Gary has curated exhibitions including 'Motion Deconstructed' in NYC, and 2 projects for Mironova Gallery one a 2 month pop up gallery in Bridgehampton, NY and the gallery's opening at Art Moscow 2010. He will also be curating a project space within Art Pam Beach in January 2011 which will showcase emerging Russian and CIS artists, as well as Moderating a talk on the state of Russian Contemporary art and the it's engagement with the wider world.

Inspired by their mutual passion for high quality service and attention to detail, Ben Elliot Simpson and Paul Drummond joined forces in London to create Quintessentially, a private members club with a global concierge service, in December 2000. Quintessentially's discerning members around the world enjoy an array of benefits carefully selected to make a difference in their lives. Their team of experts are on hand for everything from solving pressing practical problems such as dinner reservations and sourcing a good nanny to advice on the latest fashion collections, travel experiences, lifestyle trends, spur-of-the-moment chartered yachts, and nightlife recommendations plus much more - providing nothing but the best insider access, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. With 56 offices worldwide, Quintessentially has quickly become a global support system for its members, wherever they may be.
