PHYLIS PEZENIK
DJK RESIDENTIAL

Phyllis Pezenik possesses sophistication and levels of industry knowledge and experience that make her the “best in class” in Manhattan real estate.

A lifelong New Yorker, she has an unparalleled knowledge of the city and has successfully built an intercontinental real estate reputation based upon a foundation of integrity, compassion and faultless execution. In 2011, she led the Manhattan Association of Realtors (MANAR) as its President. She currently serves on the board of MANAR and was recognized as MANAR’s “Realtor of the Year” in 2011. Additionally, she is a member of The Employee Relocation Council and a featured lecturer at The Real Estate Academy of New York.

Her accomplishments include developing a successful architectural design firm; serving as the chairman of the Old Westbury Board of Appeals; and being recognized as a multi-million dollar producing sales agent at a top Manhattan brokerage firm.

Pezenik continues to enhance her real estate skills and certifications as a member of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY); the New York State Association of Realtors, and the National Association of Realtors. With her experience spanning from mansions to commercial properties — working with both buyers and sellers — Phyllis is an advocate for her clients and brokers.
