HAVE YOU HEARD ...

AWARD-WINNING Broadway composer and playwright Albert Tapper just listed his full-floor penthouse at 111 East 56th Street in the renovated Lombardy Hotel.

William Randolph Hearst built the hotel in the 1920s for his mistress and silent film star Marion Davies. Over the years, it has been home to icons including Bette Davis, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Rodgers.

Apartment #1900 is a 3,000 s/f apartment originally created by a combination of four apartments.

It has a 1,400 s/f wraparound terrace, living room with a beamed ceiling and built-in bookcases, and a master bedroom with dressing room and custom wall of closets. Two private elevators open directly into the foyer.

The penthouse is listed for $4.995 million with Carole Armstrong of DJK Residential.
